JESSIE FROST, 28, STYLIST AND ONLINE STORE OWNER, MARRIED JONATHAN 'JONTY' GLASER, 41, BOUTIQUE HOTEL DEVELOPER
DATE: April 2, 2006, at Coorabella near Byron Bay, NSW. We were married on a frangipani farm owned by a friend.
NUMBER OF GUESTS: 160.

FIRST MEETING: We met at some friends' joint birthday party in Sydney. He had just arrived from New York for a holiday and he commented on my shoes.

THEME: The concept was country chic. We let the time of day and changing light set the mood, so we married under a tree in the warm sun and soft light of late afternoon. We had cocktails on the balcony at sunset, and dinner under an elegant marquee in the evening, then we partied late into the night.

WEDDING DRESS: A Collette Dinnigan gown in ivory silk georgette, with Swarovski crystal detail on the straps and sides. I wore an ivory silk mesh cathedral veil by Helen English and diamanté t-bar heels by Versace.

BRIDAL PARTY: It was huge. We had one best woman (my sister walked me down the aisle), four bridesmaids, nine flowergirls, three pageboys, four pole holders (for Jonty's Jewish sentiments), one best man and two ceremonial readers.

ENGAGEMENT RING: A yellow diamond set in white gold. Our wedding bands are three rings that were hand-beaten flat with a personal inscription on each, made by a good friend - who's also a jewellery designer - as a wedding gift. m
